HEREBY AUTHORIZE

the Comprehensive Institute "via Padre Semeria" of Rome, pursuant to art. 19-bis of Decree-Law no. 148 of 10/16/2017 (converted, with amendments, into Law no. 172 of 12/04/2017) to permit the independent dismissal of their son/daughter from the school premises at the end of the school day. To this end, aware of the criminal penalties provided by law in the event of false statements (art. 26 of Law no. 15/1968, articles 483, 495, 496 of the Criminal Code), pursuant to Presidential Decree no. 445/2000 articles 46 and 47,

DECLARE

- to be aware of the organizational arrangements provided by the School and to share and accept the criteria and methods established by it regarding the actual and potential supervision of minors;
- to be aware that, outside of school hours, supervision falls entirely upon the family;
- to be unable to constantly guarantee the presence of the parents or another adult at school dismissal;
- to have evaluated the characteristics of the home-to-school route and the potential hazards;
- to have evaluated the capacity for autonomy, characteristics, and habitual behavior of their child;
- to be willing to cooperate with the school for any safety and prevention initiative and to exercise continuous supervision over the minor;
- to accept the provisions established in the "Joint Responsibility Agreement" (patto di corresponsabilità) with the school;
- that the minor habitually travels independently within the urban environment without ever having been involved in accidents.

The undersigned UNDERTAKE TO

- monitor travel times and their child's habits to avoid potential dangers and to ensure that, upon arriving home, the child receives proper care/reception;
- promptly inform the school should safety conditions change;
- personally pick up the minor upon request by the school and in the event that safety issues arise;
- constantly remind the minor of the necessity for correct behavior, attitudes, and compliance with traffic regulations.

This authorization is understood to extend also to school trips/outings in which the minor participates during the current school year and which take place during the hours communicated in writing to the families.

Early dismissal associated with the State Exam sessions for third-year classes is likewise authorized.

The undersigned declare to be aware that, based on the provisions of the School Regulations, this authorization is not valid in the event of early dismissal (even if previously communicated by the family) nor in the event of return from educational trips beyond regular school hours, and they undertake in such events to pick up their son/daughter personally or through a delegated person.

Copies of the identity documents of both parents/legal guardians are attached hereto.
